Series introduction

Suppose, a person is living in an isolated island and he has tasted only bananas in his whole life. Although he has heard about other fruits like mangoes, apples and grapes but never tasted them. If he claims that bananas is the best fruit on this planet, yes, he can claim but his claim is not based on any logic or rational because he has never tasted other fruits in this world. In the same way, well is the whole world for a frog living in it.

Similarly, people follow the religion of their parent and they consider that their religion is right and superior and all other religions are wrong and inferior, without having any knowledge about them. The purpose of this book is to create positive attitude about other religions and their followers.

Verses from the Holy Quran and the Old Testament (Jewish Bible) are put together in a logical sequence so that readers can understanding both the religions and also pursue righteousness to achieve the ultimate goal of Eternal life. Mostly, people are wasting their precious time on useless, unproductive and worthless issues. We should concentrate in improving our own spiritual life and try to fulfill various obligations and responsibilities which our own religion demands. Some scholars talk less in the favour of their own religion but talk more against other religion. No person has any right to criticize other faith. Our words and actions should strengthen love not hatred in the society. If a person is hurting others by his words, then he should understand that his words are not from the Almighty God. May God gives us wisdom and power to shed away all types of evil and wickedness in our lives and enable us to pursue holiness, goodness and purity which God demands from every human being.

God

In the Holy Quran and in the Old Testament (Jewish Bible) the concept of one God is very simple and clear. When words like only, alone, and, no other God is used, then we should not have any doubt about the oneness of God. In Ex 3:14 God replied to Moses, I am the one who always is; just tell the Israelites, I am has sent me to you. Here we can see words “I am” is used not “we are”. Verses from the Holy Quran and the Old Testament (Jewish Bible) will help us to understand the nature of God. Now it is the responsibility of every intellectual, irrespective of his religious background, to find out what is wrong and what is right. I leave it to the reader to ponder and decide. In this era, every person believes what he would like to believe and one person can not force or drill his own ideas in the minds of others against their will. Generally people would like to give their opinion nearly on every issue without reading the Holy books in depth. Our faith should not be based on man made teachings but should be based on verses of the Holy books. Above all, obedience to Almighty God is more important than spending our precious time in discussing the substance of God.
